MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Briefing of Moose and Lowenstein, Staff
Consultants to Senator Symington's Sub-
Committee on U.S. Security Agreements and Commitments Abroad, 21 March 1973

PARTICIPANTS:

1. An informal briefing of Messrs. Moose and Lowenstein was held from 0930 to 1100 hours in response to a letter from Senator Symington to the Director requesting assistance in connection with his staff consultants' forthcoming trip. We opened the conversation on the note that since we were not specifically aware of the topics they would be interested in discussing, we had not prepared a formal briefing. It was agreed that we would respond to questions they had uppermost in their minds in connection with their trip.

2. The discussions covered a wide range of topics, including the degree of
